

FRIDAY, JUNE 18th 9:00 – 10:30 a.m.	Room 170	Room 172	Room 106	Room 104	Room 270
	Paper Session: Confronting Crises "Junk the Market: Responses to the Foreclosure Crisis," Peter Marcuse (Columbia University) "Narrating the Great Recession: Reflections on Critical Scholarship and Community Coalitions in Neoliberal Times," Marshall Feldman (The University of Rhode Island) Chester Hartman, discussant	Panel: Divergent Uses of Art & Culture in Urban Revitalization This session looks at the divergent uses of art in the city. On the one hand, there is an instrumental use of 'culture' in the contemporary city. On the other hand, art and culture are also used for more progressive and subversive goals, as a means for community building Norma Rantisi (Concordia University) Yuseph Katiya (Concordia University) Diana Sherman (City Canvas) Ariel Bierbaum (City Canvas)	Paper Session: The Healthy Metropolis "A Just Metropolis is a Healthier Metropolis: Seeing Partnerships between Urban Planning and Public Health," Victoria Barr (University of British Columbia) "Community Engagement in Partnerships for Healthy Communities," Johanna Walczak (Olneyville Housing Corporation, Providence, RI) "Making healthy cities: the link between neighbourhood walkability and obesity-related diseases," Max Halparin (McGill University) "Vertical Neighborhoods Model and Social Interactions in Residential Skyscrapers," Siamak Ahmadzadeh Bazzaz (Politecnico di Milano University)	Panel: Insurgent Public Space: Creating Just Cities through Direct Citizen Actions This panel discussion examines the instrumentality and possibilities of community and citizen direct actions in transforming the contemporary urban landscape Jeffrey Hou (University of Washington), Yung-Teen Annie Chiu (Praxis University, Taiwan) Blaine Merker (Rebar) Jeannene Przyblyski (San Francisco Art Institute) Michael Rios (University of California, Davis) James Rojas (Latino Urban Forum)	Panel: Community Economic Development in Canada: roles, spaces, and unconventional indicators A workshop on how government and non-government agencies can assess environments for building community economic development and how to approach measuring accomplishments. Molly Johnson (McGill University) Robyn Webb (University of Manitoba/Spence Neighbourhood Association) Carla Klassen (University of Toronto)
	Room 315A	Room 314B	Room 315C	Room 214B	Room 315D
	Panel: Getting Real Affordable Housing Wins from 'Smart Growth' Collaborations: What Does It Take? Will environmental, transportation and labor partners use their muscle for affordable housing? Members of one such campaign coalition will share their perspectives on both victories and challenges. Peter Cohen (East Bay Housing Organizations) Melissa Hippard (Greenbelt Alliance) Sam Tepperman-Gelfan (Public Advocates) Alex Lantsberg (Northern California Carpenters Regional Council) Jovana Vasquez (Contra Costa Interfaith Supporting Community Organization)	Paper Session: Contested Space "California Dreams, California Nightmares: Gang Injunctions, Civil Rights, and the Spaces of People of Color," Tareq Amer (UC Davis) "Public Policy & Sexual Geography in Portland, Oregon, 1945-2007" Elizabeth Mylott (Portland State University) "Corruption in Planning and Land Development in Greece: the Growth of a Lernaean Hydra," Konstantinos Lalenis (University of Thessaly, Greece) "Plural Legalities and Anti Eviction Struggles in Cape Town, South Africa," Kenneth Salo (University of Illinois, Urbana Champaign)	Workshop: "Organizing for Equity in East Oakland" Equity equals community, housing, safety, groceries, health, and places to play – join us in a real conversation about health equity Shawn Rowland (East Bay Housing Organizations) Jeremy Liu (East Bay Housing Organizations) Deborah Carney (East Bay Asian Local Development Corporation) Alexandra Desautels (Alameda County Public Health Department)	Workshop: "Social Justice and Climate Change Planning" Local planners & social justice advocates discuss how to reconcile social justice issues and climate change planning strategies. Ayrin Zahner (UC Berkeley) Erik de KoK (City of Sacramento) Constance Slider (CORE) Emily Kirsch (Ella Baker Center)	Paper Session: Counter Hegemony, Counter Publics "Architecture and human rights: countering discriminatory planning policies," Malkit Shoshan (Foundation for Achieving Seamless Territory) "The Meeting Place: Colonialism and Planning in Winnipeg, MB," Sarah Cooper "Criminal food: Dissent, food sharing, and biopower in the revanchist city," Jeremy Sorenson (University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee) "Deep Activism: An Inward Revolution Toward Transformative Social Change," John Adams (John F. Kennedy University)

FRIDAY, JUNE 18th 10:45 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.	Room 170	Room 172	Room 106	Room 104	Room 270
	Paper Session: Global Cities, Changing Cities "The evolution of planning in the EU: losing national styles and traditions to Europeanization?", Konstantinos Lalenis (University of Thessaly, Greece) "When Local State as the Dealer: The Transformation of Plutocracy City to Global City and the Reshaping of Growth Machine at Taiwan," Chien-hung Tung (National Chung-Hsing University), Yao-hua Liou (Feng Chia University), Kang-ting Tasi (National Chung-Hsing University) "Identity Crises! Fabricating the Global City in India's Neo-Liberal Economic Era," Morgan Campbell (Hunter College CUNY, CAG (Chennai, India)), Jessica Hecker (Hunter College CUNY) "Defensive Identity and Flowing Place: A Case Study of Migration and Return Home of Dongji Settlement," Ya-Chun Chiang, Yi-Xiang Cheng	Paper Session: (Re)design "Leveraging an Industrial Legacy Infill Philadelphia: Industrial Sites," Linda Dottor, Elizabeth Miller (Community Design Collaborative) "Red Hook Initiative," Kian Goh (Parsons: The New School for Design, University of Pennsylvania) "The Tao of Urbanism: Canalscape," Nan Ellin (Arizona State University)	Paper Session: Smart Growth 2.0 "Smart Growth's Democracy Problem," Zelda Bronstein "GreenTRIP: Multiple Rewards of Low-Traffic Development," Ann Cheng (TransForm) "A Smart Growth IQ? Toward a consensus of Smart Growth principles (Assessing The Preserve, Chino, CA), Jennifer Wolch (UC Berkeley), Michael Jerrett (UC Berkeley), Mariela Alfonso (Virginia Tech) "Hitting our Stride: Developing an operational definition and performance metrics for Walkable Urban Places," Mariela Alfonso (Virginia Tech) and Chris Leinberger (Brookings Institution)	Panel: Fighting for Sustainable and Equitable Communities: Frontline Reports From Five Communities of Color Gen Fujioka (National Coalition for Asian Pacific American Community Development) Veronica Burt (Preserve and Benefit Historic Rondo Committee) Karoleen Feng (East Bay Local Asian Development Center) Dean Matsubayashi (Little Tokyo Service Center) Isela Gracian (East Los Angeles Community Corporation) Malcolm Yeung (Chinatown Community Development Center)	Panel: Strategies for Equitable Development and Sustainable Communities: the Evolving Roles of Health Indicators and Assessments in Community Planning We will focus on these broader impacts of transportation investment, and examine the tension between funding existing public transit that meets the essential transportation needs of low income communities of color and the trend toward costly expansion projects that serve wealthier suburban populations. Jme McLean (PolicyLink), Angelica Cabande (South of Market Community Action Network (SOMCAN)) Erin Christensen (Mithun) Jonathan Heller (Human Impact Partners (HIP))
	Room 315A	Room 314B	Room 315C	Room 214B	Room 315D
	Panel: My Momma told me Cancer was a Growth: Ain't no 'Smart' Growth without the People! Chinatown Community Development Center (CCDC) will look at how the new Central Subway Station in SF "does right by the community," including demands for a culturally sensitive relocation strategy, opportunities for economic development, and impacts on rent-controlled housing; Youth United for Community Action (YUCA) will discuss an alternative "transit-oriented development" plan in East Palo Alto, with jobs and education at its center; and Asian Pacific Environmental Network (APEN) will frame the Lake Merritt BART in Oakland around the integrity of an existing neighborhood and its vital cultural resources. Fernando Marti (Asian Neighborhood Design), Cindy Wu (Chinatown Community Development Center) Annie Loya (Youth United for Community Action (YUCA)), Mari-Rose Taruc, Amber Chan or Wayne Leung (Asian Pacific Environmental Network)	Workshop: "Racial Justice Planning: White anti-racist praxis and Critical Race Theory" Critique the role of systemic racism and white privilege in planning and consider critical race studies and white anti-racist praxis as tools to create the just city. Maureen Purtill (UCLA) Clare Fox (UCLA) Cedar Landsman (UCLA)	Panel: Transit Justice Case Study: The Oakland Airport Connector Campaign, and its Implications for Civil Rights in Transportation Investments This presentation will situate this victory within an analysis of transit racism and injustice. We will focus on these broader impacts of transportation investment, and examine the tension between funding existing public transit that meets the essential transportation needs of low income communities of color and the trend toward costly expansion projects that serve wealthier suburban populations. Bob Allen (Urban Habitat) Lindsay Imai (Urban Habitat) Will Dominie (Urban Habitat) Richard Marcantonio (Public Advocates)	Workshop: "Decoding Military Landscapes" We will devote our workshop to creating the foundation for a participatory online archive that catalogs and examines the legacy of military urbanization Javier Arbona (UC Berkeley) Bryan Finoki (Subtopia) Nick Sowers (Soundscrapers)	Paper Session: New York City Revisited "Misappropriating Jane Jacobs: 'The Battle For Gotham: New York in the Shadow of Robert Moses and Jane Jacobs,' Nation Books," Roberta Brandes Gratz "The Campaign for Community-Based Planning: A Case Study of Coalition-Driven Planning Policy Reform in NYC," Eve Baron (Pratt Institute) "Intractable Democracy: Fifty Years of Community-Based Planning," Anusha Venkataraman (Pratt Institute) "Uncertain engagements: Affordable housing, gentrification and ghettoization in the rebuilding of the South Bronx," Catherine Guimond (UC Berkeley) Peter Marcuse (Columbia University), discussant

FRIDAY, JUNE 18th 1:45 – 3:15 p.m.	Room 170	Room 172	Room 106	Room 104	Room 270
	Paper Session: Using Design to Leverage Sustainability and Equality "The Fifth Ecology - Los Angeles Beyond Desire," Mans Tham (Royal University Collage of Fine Arts, Stockholm, Sweden), Björn Berglund (Linköping University, Sweden), Karl Landin (Stockholm Urban Planning Administration, Sweden) "The Restorative Justice Center, A New Typology," Deanna VanBuren (FOURM design+build+educate) "Exploring possibilities in urban sustainability: Permaculture, radical theory and practice," Stephen Polk (University of Colorado at Denver) "Densifying Oakland with Community Support: Case Studies in Culturally Diverse Housing," Michael Pyatok (Pyatok Architects)	Paper Session: Nature & Infrastructure "Ecological Strongholds: How cities and international policy are closing the environmental gap," Yogi Hendlin (UCLA) "Neighborhood conquers storm water with green solutions," Pattsy Petrie (University of Illinois) "The Piggyback Yards: A Catalyst for the future of the Los Angeles River," Benjamin Feldmann (Perkins+Will), Leigh Christy (Perkins+Will) and Marc Sallette (Perkins+Will)	Workshop: "Knowledge Fair: Enlightening our experiences and sharing discoveries" The Knowledge Fair allows professionals to visually express their experiences to catalyze shared learning, discussion and partnership building. Sebastiao Ferreira (MIT) Annis Sengupta (MIT) NOTE: Pick up your lunch in the courtyard and then join us early! This 2½ hour workshop begins at 12:45 p.m.	Panel: Safe Cities Alfonso Valenzuela (UAEM/UC Berkeley) Teresa Vázquez-Castillo (California State University of Northridge) Marisa Cravens (Association of Bay Area Governments)	Panel: Hey, Progressive Planners, isn't time that we start talking about recapturing unearned increment in land value? This panel will discuss land value recapture in general and as applied to land use changes and upzonings that increase land values to produce Inclusionary Housing and near mass-transit stations to facilitate Transit Oriented Development and produce affordable housing.
				Room 112 (also 1:45-3:15 p.m.)
				Panel: Bringing home the equity in the new Sustainable Communities Initiative Kalima Rose (PolicyLink) Dwayne Marsh (HUD)	Nico Calavita (San Diego State) Stephen Barton (Berkeley Rent Stabilization Program) Tom Gihiring (TAGPLAN, Seattle)
	Room 315A	Room 314B	Room 315C	Room 214B	Room 315D
	Panel: Planning for Growth or Planning for Equity?: Challenges and Opportunities for Sustainable Community Development Sean Connelly (BC-Alberta Social Economy Research Alliance) Bob Huish (Dalhousie University) Mark Roseland (Simon Fraser University) David Hendrickson (Simon Fraser University)	Panel: Social Responsibility by Design – Integration of Ethical Principles and Sustainable Practices in the Lorry I. Lokey Graduate School of Business Building, Mills College Rosa Sheng (Bohlin Cywinski Jackson) Nancy Thornborrow (Mills College) Karen Fiene (Mills College) Greg Mottola (Bohlin Cywinski Jackson)	Panel: Connecting mobility and planning in the Bay Area: politics, civil rights, and new tools Through the lens of progressive politics, the panelists will provide an overview of the salient planning issues facing San Francisco and the Bay Area, taking a closer look at some specific regional transit and planning projects. Jason Henderson (San Francisco State University) Rachel Brahinsky (UC Berkeley) Brooke Dubose (Fehr and Peers) Kearstin Dischinger (San Francisco Planning Department) Aaron Golub (Arizona State University) Jason Henderson (Geography, San Francisco State University)	Panel: Just Beginnings: Alternatives to the clean slate Vacant land, resulting from a natural disaster or from economic decline leads planners and politicians to see the land as a "clean slate." However, such a view disregards the messy reality that individual people own property and are directly affected by planning decisions. David Perkes (Gulf Coast Community Design Studio) Christine Gaspar (Center for Urban Pedagogy) Dan Pitera (Detroit Collaborative Design Center)	Workshop: "Struggles for the Right to the City in the Bay Area" Work with local Right to the City groups to counter the aura of inevitability surrounding megaprojects Jaron Browne (POWER) Alicia Schwartz (POWER) Gilda Haas, Dr. Pop/UCLA

FRIDAY, JUNE 18th 3:30 – 5:00 p.m.	Room 170	Room 172	Room 106	Room 104	Room 270
	Paper Session: Deconcentration, Decentralization, Participation: Roads to Equity? "Evaluating Participatory Processes: The Case of Participatory Budgeting at Toronto Community Housing," Joanna Duarte Laudon (York University) "Promoting Resident-Led Planning and Development in the American and Italian South," Kenneth Reardon (University of Memphis), Antonio Raciti (University of Catania), Katherine Lambert Pennington (University of Memphis) "Physical Transformation, Poverty Deconcentration and Residents' Self-Sufficiency in HOPE VI: Lessons from Camden, New Jersey," Michael Brown (New Jersey Institute of Technology) "From earthquake crisis to more equal metropolis," Pouya Doulabi (Politecnico di Milano-Italy), Setareh Fadaee (Politecnico di Milano-Italy), and Hossein Maroufi (Politecnico di Milano-Italy)	Paper Session: Green Space, Public Space? "Post-industrial urban green space: Whose city, which ecologies?" Jennifer Foster (York University) "Spatial Equity of Walkable Public Parks: Phoenix Mesa Urbanized areas, Maricopa County," Asiya Natekal (Arizona State University) "The Real and the Festival Marketplace: South Street Seaport, the New Amsterdam Market and the social construction of public space," Melanie Bower (Museum of the City of New York) "Toronto's Parks: Examining the discourses of public space in the postindustrial city," Penny Kaill-Vinich, Jed Kilbourn, Matt Kenel and Ian Malczewski (York University)	Paper Session: Identity and Space "Using found images to find meaning and space," Carole O'Brien (University of Manitoba) "Becoming American in Public: New Immigrant Parades and the Construction of American Ethnic Identity," Annis Sengupta (MIT) "queer space HOME," Kian Goh (super-interesting!), Parsons The New School for Design, University of Pennsylvania School of Design) "Planning for Cultural Expression in the Built Environment," Andrea Garfinkel-Castro (Arizona State University)	Panel: Community Based Economic Development: Perspectives from the Island of O'ahu This panel draws on the collective experience of community practitioners in Hawai'i. Hawai'i has developed a unique community based economic development model that brings the bio-centric sciences and values of its indigenous people into the 21st century. Tai-An Miao (Asian/Pacific Islander Youth Violence Prevention Center, Waimanalo Youth and Family Collaborative) Kamuela Enos (MAO Organic Farms) Molly Chlebnikow (University of Hawaii) Ilima Ho-Lastimoso (God's Country Waimanalo) Moderator: Annie Koh (Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts)	Paper Session: Spatial Justice "Resisting neoliberal urbanism: Moving towards a socially just progressive city," Mohammad Rahman "Segregation, Spatial (in)Justice and the City," Sonia Lehman-Frisch (University of Cergy-Pontoise, France) "Scaling the Urban Crisis: Blight and Spatial Scale," Clement Lai (Cornell University) Discussant: Edward Soja (UCLA)
	Room 315A	Room 314B	Room 315C	Room 214B	Room 315D
	Panel: Changing the Face of the Surface Transportation Policy Debate Charting a New Course: Renewed momentum and coordinated advocacy for a more equitable and just transportation system. Shireen Malekafzali (PolicyLink) Allison Brooks (Reconnecting America) Bob Allen (Urban Habitat)	Panel: SMART Ideas Urban Design Community Charrette and Competition With the coming of the SMART train in Santa Rosa, opportunities for new patterns of development emerge to retrofit suburbia, stimulating economic vitality and livability. Julia Donoho (AIA Redwood Empire) RK Stewart (Perkins+Will) Lois Fisher (CNU, Fisher Town Design) Tanya Narath (Leadership Institute for Ecology and the Economy) Alima Silverman, (AIA)	Panel: After the Transformation: The People Reclaiming San Francisco Fernando Marti (Asian Neighborhood Design) Nick Pagoulatos (MAC and Dolores Street Community Services) Angelica Cabande (SOMCAN)	Workshop: "Is New Ruralism Progressive? Does this matter in the context of seeking a Just Metropolis?" Based on rural community-based sustainability initiatives happening in California's Sierra Nevada Foothills, participants will discuss how such initiatives do (or do not) fit into the New Ruralism framework. Keith Pezzoli (UC San Diego) Kerry Williams (The Global ARC) Janice Pezzoli (The Global ARC)	Panel: Berkeley's Downtown Area Plan: Environment, Equity and Economy Berkeley's Green Pathway: Maximizing the environmental & social equity benefits from Infill Development in Downtown Berkeley. Erin Rhoades (Livable Berkeley) Mayor Tom Bates (City of Berkeley) Tim Frank (Environmental Consultant)

SATURDAY, JUNE 19th 9:00 – 10:30 a.m.	Room 170	Room 172	Room 106	Room 104	Room 270
	Paper Session: Community Based Development "Innovative Strategies, Fresh Roles and Renewed Commitment to Collaboration for CDCs," Sara Khorshidifard, James Lewis and Susan Weistrop (University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee) "Community based research as a building block towards entrenching the right to the metropolis?" Amy Twigge-Molecey (I.N.R.S.- Urbanisation, culture et société) "Labour-Community Coalitions Negotiating Community Benefit Agreements" Abbe Edelson (Independent Researcher/MES York University, Toronto, Ontario) "Crafting agreements: shaping spaces for coping with uncertainty? The case of partial plans of downtown renewal in Colombia," Catalina Ortiz (University of Illinois - Chicago)	Paper Session: Food, Planning and Politics "Addressing Food Security - Wastewater as a renewable resource for Urban Agriculture," Geeti Silwal (Perkins+Will) "Food System Planning, Food Justice, and Critical Race Theory: Toward a Radical Strategy," Clare Fox (UCLA), Cedar Landsman (UCLA), Alicia Virani (UCLA) "San Francisco's 'Street Food Movement'," Sang-hyoun Pahk (University of Hawaii at Manoa) "A Fertile Field: Cultivating Space for Food Justice," Alison Hope Alkon (University of the Pacific)	Paper Session: Urban Redevelopment Reconsidered "Windy Ridge: Suburban 'Slum' or Community Opportunity?" Liz Shockey (University of North Carolina-Charlotte) "Revitalizing Utica – An Urban Learning Community," Xiaowei Zhang (Cornell University), Christopher Hardy, Tiffany Ho, Chethan Sarabu, Ross Pristera (Cornell University) "Broadway Triangle, Brooklyn: From Planning Education to Political Engagement," Anusha Venkataraman (Pratt Institute)	Paper Session: Design and Mobility on the Gulf Coast "Cooperative design on the Louisiana Coast: Coastal Sustainability Studio," Jeffrey Carney (Louisiana State University) "Planning against Rural Sprawl: The Golden Triangle Highway Corridor Planning Project," John Poros (Mississippi State University) "Reviving the Public Realm: one stop at a time," Hans Herrmann (Mississippi State University)	Panel: Children Should Be The Architects And Planners Of Our Future Cities Alex Gilliam (Public Workshop) Damon Rich (City of Newark / Center for Urban Pedagogy) Charlie Vinz (After School Matters) Gever Tully (Tinkering School)
	Room 315A	Room 314B	Room 315C	Room 214B	Room 315D
	Panel: Progressive Cities and Neighborhood Planning: A Proposal for Cooperative Work Xolela Mangcu (University of Johannesburg) G. William Domhoff (UC Santa Cruz) Kenneth M. Reardon (University of Memphis) Alex Schafran (UC Berkeley) Discussant: Pierre Clavel (Cornell University)	Workshop: "Meaningful Community Engagement to Inform Decisionmaking and Ensure Social Equity" This workshop explores key elements of an engagement model that brought together a broad cross-section of a divided community to weigh in on a critical (and contentious) issue. Fern Tiger (Fern Tiger Associates) Liz Newman (Fern Tiger Associates)	Panel: Development with Diversity: Linking Research to Action in the San Francisco Bay Region This panel will present that project from the perspective of the organizations on the ground & the researchers assisting their efforts. Karen Chapple (UC-Berkeley) Claudia Flores (San Francisco Planning Department) Vernell Crittendon (Alliance of Californians for Community Empowerment (ACCE)) Julia Liou (Asian Health Services) Sarah Treuhaft (PolicyLink)	Workshop in two parts: "Good News from Ground Zero" and "Warp Speed Green Plan" A community visioning charrette focused on the future of Point Molate, Richmond, CA, which is currently being considered for development as a gambling casino. We will generate a greener vision for its future, together, in our two-part workshop. Our ideas will be videotaped for editing into a high quality, citizen driven presentation intended to build political will and inspire social imagination for higher purposes that this important site should serve in the life of the Bay Region and the City of Richmond. Allen Green (ADPSR) NOTE: This workshop lasts until 12:15 p.m.	Workshop: "Spectrum of Safeties: Violence and Trauma in the Public Realms" Use participatory visual exercises and a facilitated discussion to prompt participants to discuss the design elements of what they believe constitutes a "safe" space vs. an "unsafe" space. Megan McRobert (University of New Mexico)

SATURDAY, JUNE 19th 10:45 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.	Room 170 Paper Session: Ethnic Conflict, Immigration, and Safety "Planning for peacebuilding in contested cities: A needs-based analysis in Belfast and Jerusalem," Janice Miller (University of Manitoba) "'We the people...': Borderlands scholarship, immigration, and the right to the multicultural city," Caitlin Cahill (University of Utah) "Negotiating Identity In New Immigrant Gateways," Julie Behrens (Columbia University) and Kaja Kuehl (Columbia University) "Immigrants in Greece: are they welcomed or not?" Aris Sapounakis (University of Thessaly, Volos, Greece)	Room 172 Paper Session: Urbanism & Gentrification "Reimagining the Figueroa Corridor, 1960-2000: Growth Politics, Policy, and Displacement," Daniel Wu (University of Southern California) "Questioning 'Authentic' Urbanism," Jonathan Bleackley (York University) "Façades of progressive gentrification in a time of crisis, restructuring and displacement," Revel Sims (UCLA), Carolina Sarmiento (UCI)	Room 106 Paper Session: Rethinking Justice and Change in the City "Rethinking Justice in the City: Counter-spaces of Critical Mass," Lusi Morhayim (UC Berkeley) "Researching the Just City: A study of urban revitalization in Toronto, Canada," Jed Kilbourn (York University) "Car Free Sunday in London Ontario: Celebrating Progress in a Conservative Town," Ryan Craven "Education and youth of immigrant origin in Lisbon: different constraints," Beatriz Padilla (Instituto Universitário de Lisboa)	Room 104 Paper Session: Housing and Planning In Latin America: Progressive Policies and Challenges "Social Housing in Bolivia," Emily Achtenberg (NACLA research associate/affordable housing consultant, Boston MA). "Bogota's Progressive Urban Policies, Adriana Vega (Urban and Regional Planner, Bogota, Colombia) "Dilemmas of Cuban Housing and Planning Policies," Jill Hamberg (Empire State College, SUNY, NY)	Room 270 Panel: MUTT: Miami Urban Think Tank and the practice of Hybrid politics in Metropolitan Miami This presentation offers a case study for alternative social grassroots practice arising from the city of Miami. Hector Fernando Burga (UC Berkeley) Shawn Selleck (Duke University) Jennifer Siquiera (Architecture for Humanity Miami Chapter) Benji Power (MIT)
	Room 315A Panel: The extraordinary financial crisis now impacting local government Dick Platkin (Tierra Concepts) Aaron Golub (Arizona State University) Kevin Smith (UC Davis)	Room 314B Panel: From the Neighborhood to the Region: Implementing Sustainability at Multiple Scales Cases from Philadelphia, Europe and US neighborhoods will be used to explore opportunities, barriers, and mechanisms for multiscale sustainability implementation. Ingrid Heilke (MIT) Eirini Kasioumi (MIT) Leila Bozorg (MIT) Moderator: James Buckley (MIT)	Room 315C Paper Session: Development, Politics and Change in the San Francisco Bay Area Discussant: Malo Hutson (UC Berkeley) "Collapse of the Sanctuary City: The Federal Challenge to San Francisco's Immigration Policy," Trevor Gardner, (UC Berkeley) "From HOPE IV to HOPE SF: Public Housing Redevelopment in San Francisco," Jane Rongerude (UC Berkeley) "The Long Road from Babylon to Brentwood: Crisis and Restructuring in the San Francisco Bay Area," Alex Schafran (UC Berkeley)	Room 214B Continued from last page -- This workshop runs from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Workshop in two parts: "Good News from Ground Zero" and "Warp Speed Green Plan" A community visioning charrette focused on the future of Point Molate, Richmond, CA, which is currently being considered for development as a gambling casino. We will generate a greener vision for its future, together, in our two-part workshop. Our ideas will be videotaped for editing into a high quality, citizen driven presentation intended to build political will and inspire social imagination for higher purposes that this important site should serve in the life of the Bay Region and the City of Richmond. Allen Green (ADPSR)	Room 315D Panel: Architects in the Community: Beyond the Office This panel intends to discuss and showcase how architects can use the tools and processes used in their profession for populations that cannot afford to demand customized spaces. Often thought of as something for the wealthy, the power of a well designed space or object should have a transformative impact on everyone. Ann Panopio (Asian Neighborhood Design) Rachel Matthews (Rebuilding Together Oakland) Juan Calaf (Asian Neighborhood Design) Liz Ogbu (Public Architecture)

SATURDAY, JUNE 19th 1:45 – 3:15 p.m.	Room 170	Room 172	Room 106	Room 104	Room 270
	Paper Session: Affordability and Social Sustainability "Redefining Affordability: The Housing and Transportation Affordability Index," Jen McGraw and Linda Young (Center for Neighborhood Technology) "Energy Efficient Affordable Housing - the Need and the Potential," Nehemiah Stone (ADPSR National Board; Benningfield Group Inc., Principal) "Social Sustainability in the Phoenix Metropolitan Region: Financial means of job access," Steven Howland (Arizona State University) "Working at Planning's Sweet Spot: Sustainability as a Mode of Shared Wealth Creation and a Vehicle for Deepening Democracy," Carlos Espinoza-Toro (MIT Community Innovators Lab), Annis Sengupta (MIT Department of Urban Studies and Planning), Dayna Cunningham (MIT Community Innovators Lab), and Sebastiao Ferreira (MIT Community Innovators Lab)	Panel: Report Back from PLANET YOUTH, the Young Planners Network conference Followed at 3:30 by the HOPE SF Youth Summit panel in Room 112.	Paper Session: Digital and Web-Based Resources for Planners and Designers "The Open Source City: civic engagement and digital technologies," Francisca Rojas (MIT) "SEED (Social Economic Environmental Design): Triple Bottom Line Design," James Wheeler (Gulf Coast Community Design Studio) "los angeles_REDCAR," Gerry Tierney (Perkins+Will), Benjamin Feldmann (Perkins+Will), Tyrone Marshall (510 Collective), Katie Handy, Dinesh Perera (format design studio), and Thérèse Tierney (TT_Studio) "local code: real estates", Nicholas de Monchaux (UC Berkeley)	Workshop: "Building Breakthrough Communities: Sustainability and Justice in the Next American Metropolis" Come hear inspiring success stories from the front lines: new emerging multi-racial coalitions are working to achieve social justice and environmental progress around the country. Paloma Pavel and Carl Anthony	Workshop: "Common Ground: Community Building through Creativity and Play" Tai-An Miao (University of Hawaii) Kamuela Enos (MAO Organic Farms) Molly Chlebniak (University of Hawaii)
	Room 315A	Room 314B	Room 315C	Room 214B	Room 315D
	Workshop: "Urban Atlas Of Permanent Change" This session will engage participants in a lively discussion of the dynamic intersections of design, policy, temporality and improvisation in the urban field. Stephen Goldsmith (University of Utah) Jill Stoner (UC Berkeley) Walter Hood (UC Berkeley) NOTE: Pick up your lunch in the courtyard and then join us early! This 2½ hour workshop begins at 12:45 p.m. * Pre-registration required	Panel: Writing the Virtual City: A Mashup This panel brings together authors and editors who deploy the Web to explore and discuss cities, design, architecture and urban studies. Is the Web a public space where alternative formations of urban knowledge can take place, or is it a stage where urban experience becomes yet another form of entertainment, consumption and punditry? Hector Fernando Burga (UC Berkeley, MUTT), Molly Hankwitz (Queensland University of Technology, newmediafix.net), Katia Savchuk (POLIS), Nancy Levinson (Places), Margaret Crawford (UC Berkeley), discussant	Workshop: "Planning 101 - Talking to the General Public" Oh, the general public! Why don't they understand planning the way we do? This workshop will discuss and explore ideas, tools and strategies for engaging the general public in planning issues. Sarah Cooper (Planners Network Manitoba) Kerniel Aasland (Planners Network Manitoba)	Workshop: "Creating Urban Greenspaces – Evidence-based Resources" Interactive presentation will come away with evidence-based resource information about the contribution of urban green spaces to several elements of a just and sustainable metropolis. Patricia Novick	Paper Session: Dispatches from the Fringe: The Unknown Edges of Northern California "Under Water in the Valley: Stockton, California and the Future of the Exurbs," Casey M. Gallagher (UC Davis) "The foreclosures crisis in the Northern San Joaquin Valley: a geopolitical study," Hugo Lefebvre (Institut Francais de Geopolitique, Universite Paris 8, France) "Vallejo, CA. The Death and Life of an Unloved American City," L. Carlos Freire-Gibb, (Aalborg University, Denmark) "Invisible Barriers: Concentrated Poverty and the Dynamics of Neighborhood Change in Fresno," Danielle Bergstrom (Cornell University)